ZONE CROSS COUNTRY
On Friday 9 May the zone cross country carnival was held at Wolumla, near Bega, in cool, sunny conditions, ideal for distance running. Narooma High was represented by 30 runners and achieved some fine results with outstanding performances from Maddy Czubara (2nd in 18 girls), Jodie Symons (3rd in 18 girls), Max Carter (3rd in 18 boys), Nathan Schaefer (4th in 18 boys), Ryan Shaw (4th in 13 boys), Luke Kingston (5th in 18 boys), Claudia Stokes (5th in 17 girls), Georgia Poyner (5th in 14 girls) and Chloe Carlson (5th in 12 girls) all of whom have qualified for region at Nowra. Congratulations to all who attended on the day and good luck to those runners competing in Nowra in 2 weeks. K Preston

UNDER 13 RUGBY LEAGUE
Last Tuesday our Under 13 Rugby League side travelled to Bomaderry to play in the Southern NSW finals of the Shaun Timmins Shield. The first game against Woonona High was a convincing victory with our boys coming out on top 16-4. The second game against Camden High was a much tougher affair with our boys going in to half time behind at 14-6. After fighting back hard in the first five minutes of the second half fatigue, injury and lack of bench players saw Camden run in a couple of late tries. Final score 24-6 which put us out of contention for the finals. I would like to commend the boys for the high standard of football played and the way they conducted themselves throughout the competition. Mr Zideluns
